Dear Melanie,
Howell Edmunds [m. Elizabeth Blunt] & William Edmunds [m. Mary Gray] were apparently brothers. I have not entered all I know about Howell Edmunds into my computer program. The Ancestral File has a good list of the children of Howell [born 1681] and his son, Howell [b. 1708] There was a Howell Edmunds III, also, but I didn't pursue him.

Anyway, the way it apparently works out is that Sarah Edmunds, who married Joel Barker Jr., is the niece of Howell Edmunds, son-in-law of Thomas Blunt. There would be no blood relationship between Sarah Edmunds and Thomas Blunt, through this connection. But if as I suspect, Joel Barker Sr. married a daughter of Thomas Blunt, then Sarah's husband, Joel Barker Jr., would have been a grandson of Thomas Blunt. If true, the children of Joel Barker Jr. & Sarah Edmunds [Sarah, Edmunds & Lewis Barker] would have been great grandchildren of Thomas Blunt.

Thanks for your Blunt information. I had not made the connection that Thomas Blunt's mother, Mary, married [3] John Washington. I knew that John & Mary Washington were the parents of Faith Washington, who married Josiah Barker.

Dear Melanie,

The will of John Barker [d. 1714], who married Grace Busby, mentions daughter, Sarah Lanier. I have that Sarah's husband was Robert Lanier, but know nothing further about him, or about her. Sarah may have been Robert Lanier's 2nd wife [and HE could have been her second husband] & then gone on to marry again, after Robert's death.

My limited Edmunds research doesn't show a Sarah, married to a William Edmunds. Our Mary Gray who married William Edmunds [whose daughter Sarah married Joel Barker, wasn't born until 1690.

The "bit" about John LANIER (b abt 1655) md 2nd abt 1685) Sarah BARKER EDMUNDS, widow of William EDMUNDS, I think is garbled & confused with Robert Jr.'s marriage to Grace Barker & with our own William Edmunds having a daughter who married a Barker [Joel].

I could be wrong, of course.

Dear Melanie,
I was curious about just how old a person had to be to "sue in Court", so I dug out the article, "18th Century Ages of Consent", which I have attached. There were lots of things a person could do BEFORE the age of 21, but suing in Court was not one of them. So I think we can assume that Henry Read had recently turned age 21 when he sued the Bartholomews in 1694, or that he was born c. 1673.

I'm busy for the first half of today, but will comment on your Barker/Edmunds/Lanier Research, after I can look at my records on these people.

Subject: Read vs. Bartholomew

Dear Melanie,
I was at the LDS library today and transcribed the entry from the Charles City Co., VA Court Orders, which shows the suit of Henry Read against Charles & Rebecca Bartholomew.

From the abstract done by Benjamin Weisiger, we learned that Henry was the son of Peter Read and that Henry's sister Ann Young had died intestate and that Majr. Francis Poythress had Ann's estate in his possession. Majr. Poythress had died and Charles & Rebecca Bartholomew were his executors. Henry was claiming his sister's estate amounting to 1882 pounds of tobacco.

Well, I made a full extraction [original bad spelling & all], and we can glean a little additional information. We have more details about what went on, but unfortunately no dates as to when Peter & Ann Read Young died. Peter Read died in "the nonage of yr. Orator"--I take it that mean that his son Henry was still not "of age" when his father died.

I find myself questioning WHY Majr. Poythress was given administration of Ann Young's estate, along with Peter Read, who was Ann's father & was evidently taking care of John Young, Ann's son. Was Majr. Poythress taking care of the other children of Ann? If so, WHY was he doing this? Was he related to Ann or her husband? It's not stated, but it appears that Rebecca Bartholomew who with her husband Charles were Executors of Majr. Poythress' estate, must have been the widow of Poythress.

From information we've been handed on Ann Young, we have that she died about 1685, or nine years before this suit. If true, it would appear that Henry was quite a bit younger than Ann, and had probably only recently reached the age in 1694 where he could sue in court. One assumes this is age 21, but it could have been younger. Henry doesn't claim he is guardian for John Young, Ann's son, who is owed the property which Majr. Poythress still had in his possessin when the latter died. Unless ALL of Ann's children were deceased, Henry could not be claiming this property for himself, as her heir. There's a LOT left unsaid in this document.

Then WHY was the suit dropped? I flipped through the microfilm, scanning court records for more than a year after the suit was dismissed, seeing if it was taken up again, but didn't find anything. Maybe they settled out of court.

Well, I'm afraid the full transcription leaves us with more questions than before we saw it. The important information from this document is still what we already had--that Henry Reed was the son of Peter, and that Henry had a sister Ann Young.

Subject: John Barker grant

Dear Melanie,
Yes, the John Barker grant of 1657 specifically says John Barker JR. Of course I'm only going by Cavaliers & Pioneers [I own the volume which has this grant], and not by the original, but I assume Nell Nugent abstracted this correctly.

From the 18th Century Ages of Consent, a 16 year old male could take possession of land holdings, but that may have been land received by inheritance. At age 21, he could "own" land--does that mean buy and sell it [without a guardian's consent]? There have been questions raised before whether land was being granted to underage children. I don't know how to clear up this question.

It does seem strange that John Barker Jr. is listed as being twenty years older than his siblings. He could have had a different mother, of course. I wonder, though, could there have been another, OLDER John Barker in Surry Co. at this time, so that the man we call John Barker Sr. and to be listed for the 1657 land grant as John Barker Jr.?

You ask what to look for at the library. See if they have a copy of "The Valentine Papers" by Edward Pleasant Valentine. This comes in several volumes. It has a lot of Quaker records in it, and might give the family of the Quaker, Howell Edmunds. Our library has this collection on microfiche, but it costs 35 cents a page to copy it, but I'll look up the information, if you can't find it. And I think it would be good to search all of the collateral names in Charles City Co.

Subject: Joel Barker Sr.

Dear Melanie,
I think that Joel Barker Sr. was born a bit LATER than 1659. The very first record we have for him is when he is listed as a tithable in 1688. He does NOT appear as a tithable on the 1683 list, so Joel became age 21 between 1684 & 1688, or born between 1663--1667.

Jethro was a witness to a deed from his father to Benjamin Harrison on 10 August 1678, but he needed only to have reached the age of fourteen years in order to act as a witness. [born by 1664]. Jethro was not listed on the 1683 Surry Co. tithable list, so therefore not yet age 21 then [born by 1662]. He was listed as a tithable in 1688, so putting that together with the 1678 document he witnessed, Jethro was born between 1663 & 1664.

John Jr. is not listed as a tithable until the Surry Co. 1694 list. We were thinking originally that John Barker Jr. must have been born much earlier than his brothers, because we thought he was the John Barker Jr. who was granted land in 1657, but I think you're correct that this was a land grant for OUR John Barker SENIOR, there being an older [likely unrelated] man by the same name in Virginia at the same time. Joel, Jethro & John Barker[Jr.?] were all listed on the Surry 1687 militia list, but a man only had to be age sixteen to be called to militia duty. So John Jr., not yet a tithable in 1688 [born after 1667], but at least age sixteen in 1687 [born before 1671], was born between 1668--1670
[Incidently that means that the following document you found belongs to John Barker Sr., not Junior: 05/01/1660 Surry Co. Deed Book 1, page 156. 03/26/1657 Arthur Jordan, with consent of wife Elizabeth, sells to John Barker one colt.
Elizabeth Jordan desires that her brother-in-law George. Jordan acknowledge for her in court.]

I don't think there's any doubt that Joel Barker Sr. lived until 1749. If born between 1663--1667, that would have made him between age eighty-two and age eighty-six at this death.

As for the ages of the Andrews, I don't know enough about that family to make an educated guess. You sent an abstract of the will of Robert Andrews, who has both married [and unmarried] daughters when he dies. He is likely at least in his forties or fifties, but he could be older. Robert mentions a brother Thomas in his will. Do you believe that the father of Thomas & Robert Andrews was the Thomas Andrews, who bound out a daughter, Ann in 1658? How can you tell? I think that early in Virginia it's hard to estimate the generations, as women tended to marry young 17--20, and men tended to marry later, 30+. IF a man was a widower, his second wife might be quite a few years younger than he was. I do think that Catherine Andrews would have to be born earlier than 1688 in order to be the mother of All of Joel Sr.'s children,, though, because I don't think Joel Jr. was their first child. The Ancestral File listed Joel Barker's wife's name as Ann, but where that came from, I don't know. So anyway, I think the jury is still out on Catherine Andrews. She could definitely be Joel's wife, but I'm still thinking that Joel's wife might be Katherine Blunt.

Subject: Bailey

Dear Melanie,
Thanks for the Bailey information. That was very good.

I don't think it's a slam dunk yet, that the wife of our William Edmunds was Mary Briggs, but so far it looks that way. There were just the two Edmunds men, Howell & William, contemporaries in Surry Co. I can't find any Edmunds male who married a Mary, EXCEPT our William.

However, there is one slight glitch. The wife of Howell Edmunds was Elizabeth Blunt, daughter of Mary [Flood?] by her first husband, Richard Blunt. Mary [Flood?] Blunt's fourth husband was Henry Briggs, by whom she had Samuel Briggs [and two others]. Samuel names a daughter, Mary Edmunds in his 1737 will. So you have a daughter of Mary [Flood?] marrying Howell Edmunds and a granddaughter of Mary [Flood?] marrying William Edmunds.

No relationship has been established between Howell Edmunds and William Edmunds. The birth year of Howell Edmunds has been estimated as c. 1675. He seems to have been older than our William Edmunds, but not by a whole lot, as according to the author of "The Southern VA Blunts", William Edmunds acquired land in Surry as early as 1700, which would likely put his birth year as c. 1679 or earlier. So is it possible that Howell married the aunt of William's wife? Maybe so.

Elizabeth Blunt seems to have been the eldest child of Thomas Blunt, who was the eldest child of Mary [Flood?]. While Mary Edmunds, seems to have been eldest daughter [but there were six sons who could have been older] of Samuel Briggs, apparently the youngest child of Mary [Flood?]. So it's possible for the generations to get off there, especially when you're dealing with daughters. Even so, it's been estimated that Samuel Briggs was born c. 1672, which would make him about the same age as his purported son-in-law, Wm. Edmunds, born c. 1679.

I think more information on the family of Howell Edmunds needs to be collected. I've neglected to pay close attention to his children, but I suppose it's possible that one of his four sons was married to a Mary [dau. of Samuel Briggs] in 1737 when Samuel Briggs wrote his will.

Although no relationship has been established between Howell Edmunds and our William Edmunds, it is interesting to note that David Edmunds, son of William, named a son, Howell.

Dear Melanie,
We're not looking for an Edmunds daughter named, Mary--we're looking for a daughter-in-law. She was born Mary Baxter.

I don't recall a Sarah, widow of William Edmunds, who married John Lanier. What time period was this?

Surry County, Virginia

History

Part of James City County was cut off to form Surry County in 1652. In May 1625 The Virginia Company of London listed sixteen settlers in the area that became Surry County.

In 1738 Albemarle Parish was created from those parts of Lawne's Creek and Southwark parishes that lay southwest of Blackwater River. The remaining parts of Lawne's Creek and Southwark were united into Southwark Parish. The entire area of Albemarle Parish was incorporated into Sussex County when it was formed from the southwestern end of Surry County in 1754.

Sussex County was formed in 1753 from the part of Surry County that was south of the Blackwater River.

Surry County's court records are well preserved. Microfilm copies of the originals are available at the Library of Virginia . They can be borrowed by interlibrary loan through your local library.

John Barker was born 1588 in England, and died about 1652 in Virginia. He was the son of Robert Barker.

He came to Virginia and brought with him his wife and at least three sons. He was Captain of the good ship "Abraham" which set sail from London bound for Virginia about November 20, 1635 with 51 passengers (Hotten 138).

The name of his wife was Margaret no surname known. At least three sons who was born in England were:

SURRY COUNTY

Surry County was formed in 1652 from the portion of James City County south of James River. It ran from the river to the North Carolina border and was bounded on the southeast by Isle of Wight County and on the northwest by Charles City County (after 1703 Prince George). In 1723 the southern portion was cut off to form a part of Brunswick County (for which new courts were not set up at the time) and additional Surry land was added to Brunswick in 1732 when the courts of that county began operation. The middle portion of original Surry County was formed into Sussex County in 1753 and Surry then attained its present boundaries.

His Pedigree Chart ▶

My ancestor Mary Briggs, wife of Henry Briggs, was married three times before they became husband and wife. She was by then a mother to Thomas Blunt and Richard Washington. Yet we do not know who Mary's parents were.

This Family Topic is devoted to my Blunt and Washington relations.

Mary (—) Blunt Ford Washington Briggs [2346.1]

Her Pedigree Chart ▶

Mary, whose ever daughter she may be, married first Richard Blunt and they were the parents of Thomas Blunt only. Richard was dead by 19 November 1656 when Mary gave a receipt to George Jordan [4682.1] for property owned by her late husband. Ref

Mary's second husband was Charles Ford but they appear to have had no children. Ford died without a will and his land was later in the hands of his "sons-in-law [step-sons]" Thomas Blunt and Richard Washington. Ref

Mary Ford, widow, married third John Washington soon after 15 November 1658 when the two made a contract of marriage. A term of the agreement was that Washington deliver a mare to Robert Stanton when her son, Thomas Blunt, was ten years. Ref Mary and John were the parents of Richard Washington.

Mary married fourth Henry Briggs [1172] by 6 April 1671 when Henry Briggs and Mary, his wife, in right of Thomas Blunt and Richard Washington, orphans, secured a patent to 250 acres in Surry County that the king had granted to Charles Ford. Ref date, John Skinner, her husband, was ordered to be arrested for the same reason (id., p. 154-5).

Besides the above forty men and their leaders, Rookings, Long, Burgess, Simmons, Rogers, Rutherford, Whitson and Scarborough, the later suits and additional documents show us others involved in the rebellion, Richard Atkins, John Rogers, Sr. (an old man, probably identical with a John Rogers who was Burgess from the county in 1644 and 1645), Owen Myrick, Richard Steele, John Ironmonger, Richard Browne, Thomas Hyard (possibly identical with Thomas High) all from Southwark Parish, and Henry Goard and Robert Kay from Lawnes Creek. We learn of the last two men's connection with the rebellion, not from the Surry records, but from those of the colony. Soon after regaining power, Governor Berkeley issued a warrant to seize the estate of Robert Kay and bring his sheep to Green Spring, and there is on record the certificate of Samuel Swann, sheriff, that he did seize and inventory the said estate January 30, 1676/7 (Calendar of Transcripts, Va. Dept. of Archives, Sainsbury Abstracts, Vol. XVI, p. 110). In April, 1677 there is on record the complaint of Henry Gord to the Commissioners of Virginia against Capt. Roger Potter (another Surry man), Gaoler of the prison at Green Spring, for not suffering him to leave, where he had been confined for one month by the Governor (id., p. 239). Others who were at least sympathetic with the Baconians were Adam Heath, Edward Green and John Immers, who signed a document along with several old Baconians which was extremely obnoxious to the Assembly of October, 1677. Other more doubtful cases we have learned of from the depositions—young Robert Lee who on an errand for the Baconians, took Capt. Barham's horse; Henry Francis, who let him have the horse; William Kitto and Roger Rawlings, who ferried Bacon's men across to Jamestown at the siege; "Mr. Bishop", to whom Thomas High reported that Col. Swann sent a note; John Price, who was under a singularly lax imprisonment by Bacon's men at the Allen house; Walter Taylor who visited the rebels at "Bacon's Castle"; Thomas Watson who was present at Francis Mason's house when he claimed that Owen Myrick and Richard Steele were looting; Nicholas Witherington and Thomas Sowersby, who were present at the seizure of John Solway's house, the latter saying that he was "forced to go with the rebels"; possibly, also, Lieut. Thomas Busby, at whose house no guard was found in the critical days of mid-September and who agreed to pay Arthur Allen damages, along with a number of Bacon's men, November 15, 1677 (O. B. 1671-90, p. 172), John Barker who agreed to pay Arthur Allen on the same date (id., p. 173), and even John Goring of Lawnes Creek, who was ordered to pay Robert Caufield 2,702 lbs. of tobacco May 1, 1677 (id., p. 137), although it is not stated that it was for damages done during the Rebellion. All these latter, however, are much more doubtful cases, and probably took no active part in the Rebellion.

Governor Berkeley's new Assembly met at Green Spring February 20, 1676/7, and Surry's representatives were William Browne and Benjamin Harrison, new Burgesses, but old Justices. The first act of the assembly was to pass an act of indemnity and pardon in accordance with the King's letters patent of October 10, 1676, but with twenty-five or thirty notable exceptions, among whom we have mentioned Rookings, Whitson, Scarborough and Long from Surry County. The next act was to abolish all the reform laws passed by "Bacon's Assembly" in June, 1676. However, some recognition of the need for reform was manifested (we suspect largely through the influence of the Royal Commissioners) by new laws making Members of the Council and ministers of the established Church pay levies; repealing the obnoxious amerciements, or taxes, on persons engaged in law-suits; and allowing six elected representatives of the people in each parish to sit with the vestrymen when parish levies were assessed. The Commissioners had brought orders from England, also, that the people of the various counties were to have the right freely to express their grievances and make formal petitions to the Assembly for remedial action. Thus we see that the influence of the Baconian movement was not entirely lost. Most of the counties availed themselves of this right at the new Assembly, though in a few (e.g., Westmoreland), the counties were so thoroughly under the thumbs of the oligarchy that the petitions did not really express the grievances of the people, and were rather ridiculous. This was not the case with Surry County, which handed in a lengthy set of "Grievances" as follows (Va. Mag. II, p. 170-173):

> 1. That ye last assembly continued many yeares and by their ffrequent meeting being once every yeare hath been a continuall charge and burthen to the poor Inhabitants of this Collony; and that the burgesses of the sd Assembly had 150 lb tobacco per day for each member they usually continueing for three or 4 weekes together did arise to a great some, And that the said assembly did give to severall

EDMUNDS of SURRY and BRUNSWICK

Captain Howell Edmunds who died in Surry in 1729 appears to be the first of the name in Surry from whom the family can be clearly traced.

It is said that he was a son of Howell Edmunds of Charles City County (Barksdale, p.505). This Howell Edmunds was brought over by William Farrar who received a patent June 11, 1637, for 2000 acres in Henrico for the transportation of 40 persons. Among the 40 persons was a Howell Edmunds.

The first person of the name in Surry was Samuel Edmunds, who, on May 9, 1636, patented 350 acres, "E. upon land of Jeremiah Clements, N. upon mouth of Upper Chippokes Cr., W. upon land of William Rookins. This patent was renewed in 1637 for 350 additional acres. On Sept. 7, 1638, Samuel Edmunds, together with Thomas Plomer, patented 400 acres adjacent to his other holdings.

A William Edmunds died in Surry March 9, 1739. His death was reported by Mary Edmunds. He made his will in Surry February 19, 1730, and same was probated July 16, 1740. He names: sons, William, David, John, Gray; daughters, Mary, Sarah, Susannah, Elizabeth, Faith, Christian, and Phyllis; wife Mary. He may have been a son or grandson of Samuel Edmonds as he mentions lands next to the Clements (Bk.9, p.197).

Captain Howell Edmunds, from whom this family is clearly traced, married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas BLUNT of Shingleton and his wife, Priscilla BROWNE. Thomas Blunt deeded land to his daughter, Elizabeth and her husband, Howell Edmunds in 1701.

The Council of Virginia sent the following message in 1728 to Howell Edmunds, Sheriff of Surry Co.: "It is ordered by the Council that Surry Court House be built on land of Mr. Howell Edmunds near the great road that leads from the bridge through his plantation as near as may be to his Spring". (33 V 20)

Captain Edmunds made his will in Surry December 24,1728; same probated August 20, 1729, (B 7, p.962). He gave eldest son, Thomas Edmunds, "plantation where I now live and land I lately had as a patent on Wild Catt, entry on Nottoway adjacent Benjamin Clements and Thomas Butts; to son, Howell, a tract of land on Blunt's Swamp in Isle of Wight and 300 acres on Great Creek; son Nicholas 500 acres on Great Creek in Brunswick, daughters, Sarah Jones, Elizabeth Edmunds, and Ann Edmunds, negroes. FORWARD

Through the interest shown by many of those in the family, I decided at the first of the year to make available the material I had collected through the years and to try at that time to collect present-day material. I have tried to use a format in compiling that the non-genealogist would appreciate as well as those who have undertaken the task of recording their families. So please bear with the text and lineage as I'm recording this for genealogical purposes also.

A genealogist's worst task is deciding when to stop for awhile and put the collected material into some order for print, and since this is a never-ending search, it is usually delayed. Already since this has gone to print, material has been received that is impossible to add at this point. Thus in three to five years, I plan to prepare a supplement to this volume.

I can not pinpoint when I decided that I wanted in someway to record for my personal pleasure the history of my family. Possibly the conversations I overheard as a child were the sub-conscious seeds for the idea. Then after my marriage, I again heard family stories, but only after the birth of my child did I want to gather and learn of the heritage that she possessed. About ten years ago I began this most interesting search and at that time started a most rewarding project.

Much material is left out but so noted in the sources, and then again, much has been used, such as the old wills. All lines are proven except those entries that are preceeded by "theory" or "possibly." Most members of the family (and here I use the term loosly as I have compiled 4 volumes) are eligible for many of the heritage organizations and with my sources of information and papers I have on file, can belong to them.

I hope that you will enjoy your family as much as I have enjoyed "living" with them these many years. I would appreciate any comments that you have on this project.

With regards,

Fran Wylie Lomas

JOHN BARKER SR. (-1689) m. Letitia
JOHN BARKER JR. (1652-1714) m. Grace Busby
ELIZABETH BARKER m. Christopher Foster
8th Great Grandparents of Fran Lomas

A John Barker was the master of the ship, "Abraham," which set sail from London "bound for Virginia about November 20, 1635 with 51 passengers." On November 29, 1649 John Barker patented 300 acres in James City County, Virginia "lying upon the very head of the main branch of Lower Chippokees Creek bounded upon the land of Master Dunston and William Carter for the transportation of 6 persons." He may not have been the John Barker of the "Abraham," but is the John Barker, the ancestor.

Theodrick Bland, of the John Bland and Co., merchants, for 10,000 pounds of good tobacco conveyed upon John Barker, planter, a plantation bounding upon the main river of Upper Chippokes Creek 9 January 1653.

John Barker Jr. of Surry County Virginia on October 5, 1657 patented 600 acres on Upper Chippokes Creek. (This is John Barker as noted in the heading as John Barker Sr.)

Letitia Barker witnessed a deed with John Barker in Surry County in 1671 - the only evidence of the mother of John Barker Jr.

John Barker Sr , on September 2, 1673. with his second wife, Anne conveyed unton John Barker, planter, a plantation bounding upon the main river of Upper Chippokes Creek:

> "To all people whom this deed, sale or writing of Bargain & Saill shall come wee, John Barker, Senr. of the parish of Southwick in the County of Surry in Virg^{a} and Anne, my wife, the late wife and Executrix of the last will and testament of Geo. Marshall, late of Martins Bradon in Charles City County, dec., send greetings. Whereas, the sd. Geo. Marshall was in his lifetime possessed . . . of a certain Plantation . . . containing 75 acres . . . the sd. Geo. Marshall by his last will and testament . . . did give and bequeath to the sd. Anne, his wife . . . I the sd. John Barker have since married with the sd. Anne . . . for a very valuable consideration to us given by John Barker, the Younger, of the p'sh & county aforesd, have given . . . the aforesaid Plantation."

Before the close of the year John Jr. conveyed the property back to his father and stepmother. Upon recording of the deed, John Sr. makes note that he is then residing in Charles City County.

It appears that Thomas Busby (father in-law of John Barker Jr.) and John Barker Sr. were among the "Rebels" who took possession of "Bacon's Castle" (Arthur Allen's home) during the Rebellion, for "Bacon's Lieutenant, Thomas Busby, at whose house no guard was found during the critical days of mid-September, along with a number of Bacon's men, among whom was John Barker, agreed to pay Aruthur Allen damages, November 15, 1677."

"On August 10, 1678, John Barker Sr., of Martins Brandon in Charles City County, with approbation and consent of Ann, his wife, for 16,000 pounds of good merchantable Toba (tobacco) conveyed unto Benjamin Harrison* . . . land in Surry County above the head of Upper Chippokes Creek whereon I formerly lived . . . patent granted unto me 18 December 1662 being in quantity 1800 acres."

Joel Barker, son of John Sr., brought suit 5 January 1690, against John Good of Charles City County for a sum payable in tobacco and cash. In the recordings of Charles City County, Good had married the widow of John and assumed part of the inheritance of issues of John and his first wife, Letitia.

John Jr.'s will was written 9 October 1713 and probated in Surry County 19 May 1714.

> "Daughter, Elizabeth Andrews, 5 shillings; Daughter Sarah Lanier, 10 shillings; Daughter, Hannah Laskley, 20 shillings; Grandson, Robert Foster, 40 acres; Son, John Barker, 400 acres; Son John Barker, 22 acres; Son Josiah Barker, 400 acres; Son Josiah Barker, 222 acres; wife, Grace Barker, 300 acres; Daughter, Grace Barker, the 300 acres plantation after her mother's death. My son Josiah Barker to take into possession the Estate of Christopher, Grace and Robert Foster and not to be appraised and to pay them as they shall come of age . . . I do constitute and appoint my loving wife Grace Barker my Executrix & my son Josiah Barker Exr. with her of this my Last Will and Testament."

The Boxes were from Kent County, England but ancestory further than the proven Robert Box has not been determined.

Many early grants of land were given to members of the Box family and most of these colonial grants were in Laurens County, South Carolina. In 1750 Robert Box owned 179 acres on Little River and on the 2nd of December 1755, he was granted a plat of land. In 1762 he was living on Rainborn's Creek where he received another grant of 150 acres.

Robert received a bounty land grant (#467) for his services in the Revolutionary War. The grant, dated 1783, was for land in Washington County, North Carolina - now in the state of Tennessee. Three other Boxes also received grants in the area - William Box (#666) in Washington County in 1784; Michael Box (#656) in Greene County (which was created from Washington Co.) and Edward Box (#710) in Washington Co.

The Revolutionary War papers of Robert Box are very illegible and are thus:

Notes for George Jordan:
No birth record is known, ca 1657 Surry County, Virginia. George Jordan was a son of Arthur Jordan, immigrant before 1635. His mother was Elizabeth Bevin, probably the daughter of Richard Bevin and Mary, immigrants before 1635.

Of his children; George Jordan marries Sarah. Arthur Jordan marries Sarah, and moves to Brunswick county, Virginia and later Northampton County, North Carolina. Thomas Jordan moves to Isle of Wight County, Virginia. James Jordan moves to Isle of Wight County, Virginia. River Jordan moves to Bertie County, North Carolina. Mary Jordan, apparently his oldest child is born approximately 1694. She marries James Anderson, son of Thomas Anderson a neighbor. George gives his daughter an estate along the north bank of the Blackwater River in what is now southwestern Surry County by deed in 1715.
She dies ca 1733 at which time her husband patents lands in Amelia County.

The George Jordan "Large Bible" went to Augusta, Georgia with Mary Jordan's son James Anderson. James' town home there was within 2 lots of the cemetery upon which the British built their fort at Augusta during the American revolution and there is a high probability that this bible perished in demolitions or battles that took place at that location. However, James' widow Mary survived in the vicinity of Augusta until after the war so we can hope that this bible continues to survive somewhere in Georgia or points west.

Notes for MARY BROWNE:
Notes for Mary Browne:
His spouse Mary Brown's parents are not confirmed. This family of Jordan is closely associated with William Browne,Sr. of Four Mile Tree (two of his brothers married daughters of William Browne), but no daughter Mary is mentioned in William Brown's 1704 will. There is a Mary Browne mentioned in his uncles will as a godchild. There is a granddaughter "Mary Jordan, the younger" mentioned in the 1704 will of William Browne,Sr. but this has been interpreted by other genealogists as the daughters Mary of other Browne daughters married to Jordans. However as our George Jordan's wife was a Mary and Mary his daughter would have been Mary Jordan "the younger" I believe that we can claim this reference as well as the others and with more substantial casue.

Children of GEORGE JORDAN and MARY BROWNE are:

Order of birth of children not known, 10 children born between 1818-1844, 2 sons died in infancy.

Caroline Montgomery DuBrutz is descended maternally from Thos. Wilcox who came from Exeter, Devonshire, 1725 and erected one of the first paper mills in America, Concord Township, Chester Co., Pa., known as Ivy Mills ("Ivy Mills by Joseph Willcox) Paternally she is descended from John Montgomery who came to America 1720-24 and settled in Mill Creek Hundred, New Castle Co., now Delaware, bringing with him a silver creamer and tankard engraved with the Montgomery Crest. These pieces made by the English silversmith, James Smith, are owned by descendants. Her father, John Montgomery settled in Chatham Co., N.C. and was senior Captain of the "regulators"', participant in Battle of Alamance 1771, member of Committee of Safety for Rowan, N.C. 1775; died at his home "The Gulf", Chatham Co. N.C. (Ivy Mills, p 68). Gabriel DuBrutz' love letters as well as business communications were preserved by Dr. Frederick Catler of Virginia, a descendant.

JORDAN

Among the headrights of John Moone in 1635 were "Anth. Jordan" and "Rich. Banen" (C.P.32). These names suggest "Arthur Jordan" and "Richard Baven", men of these names having settled early in Surry County Virginia. The inference seems to be confirmed by the record that, April 12, 1654, Arthur Jordan married Elizabeth Bevin. They may have been children of the headrights of 1635. If it is true that he was the son of the Arthur of 1635, that Arthur would be the father of the Jordan family following. The James City records were destroyed so we can only surmise.

George Jordan is listed as one of the headrights of Captain Henry Browne, esq., "one of the Councell of State", who received, 14 July 1637, 2250 acres in James City County (soon to become Surry), on the south side of the James River. (C.P.67) Likewise found in the list of Captain Henry Browne's headrights is the name of Alice Mills, perhaps wrongly transcribed for Alice Miles (or Myles), no doubt the person who later became the first wife of George Jordan. The names of Swann and Flood are also found in this list, names closely associated with the families of Browne and Jordan for many years. The above headrights may have arrived in the Colony long before the patentee had entered claim for land thereby due. This explains the apparent lapse of two years between Lt. Col. George Jordan's date of arrival and the year when he is listed as a headright of Captain Henry Browne. That he was the same George Jordan is indicated by the association between the Jordan and Browne families for many years.

Colonel George Jordan was one of Surry's most prominent citizens. He was in the House of Burgesses at intervals for nearly thirty years, serving in the Sessions of 1646-47, 1658-59, 1674-76. He was a Justice in Surry in 1652 and afterwards, and was Attorney General for Virginia from 1676 to his death in 1678.

In 1673 the Surry Court granted him a certificate showing his right to have land in Surry for the transportation of 38 persons, among whom was Fortune Flood, his sister, who married Colonel John Flood; Arthur Jordan, his brother; and Charles and William Jordan.

Colonel Jordan lived near Four Mile Tree. At this plantation is one of the oldest tombstones in Virginia with a legible inscription. It was erected to the memory of his wife and reads:

"Here lyeth the Body of Alyce Myles daughter of John Myles of Brandon near Herreford Gent. and late wife of Mr. George Jordan in Virginia who departed this life the 7th. of January 1650
Reader, her dust is here inclosed who was of Witt and grace composed
Her life was Vertuous during health But Highly Glorious in her death,"

Colonel Jordan desired to be buried in Major Browne's orchard near his wife and children. One of his children was his daughter, Fortune, who married Thomas Hunt. He provided in his will that "on the 15 day of every October a Sermon of Mortality be had at my house, the day my daughter Fortune Hunt died. If the day come on Sunday, Holy Communion to be given. Whoever shall enjoy the land, be it one thousand generations, who possesses the land shall perform both Serman and Prayer."(B.2, p.191)

One wonders how long this admonition was observed and let him who owns the land today beware.

Colonel Jordan had many relatives in Surry. In a petition recorded in Surry, 14 Jan. 1656, Hannah Hill states that her husband had died intestate and asks that his brother-in-law, George Jordan, be granted administration on the estate. In March, 1661, Mrs. Fortune Mills, formerly the widow of Col. John Flood, and now the wife of Mr. James Mills, gave a power-of attorney to her brother George Jordan. By a deed, dated 2 June 1665, George Jordan conveyed his dwelling house and 400 acres in Surry to secure the payment of L. 300 sterling to Thomas Hunt, who had married his daughter Fortune.

Colonel Jordan's will, dated February 25, 1677-8, with a codicil dated May 8, 1678, and proved in Surry November 5, 1678, is particularly interesting for the number of relatives mentioned, though no descendant of his survived. An abstract follows.

Will of George Jordan of Surry, very aged. To be buried by my wife and children in Major Browne's orchard. There is about 2000 lbs. of tobacco in my hands due to the children of William Jordan, long since deceased, which children I could never find out, but am of late informed that they live at Gisburne, near Skipton in Craven, in Yorkshire; I order 6 hogsheads of tobacco to be sent home to them. To my two god-daughters, Colonel Thomas Swann's children, each a piece of plate of Ł 5 sterling value. To Sarah Sowerby, George Norwood, and George Briggs, also my god-children, each a silver spoon of 10 shillings value. To George Hogwood, 400 lbs. tobacco. To my friend Thomas Sowerby, 400 lbs. tobacco. To poor James Sowerby, 3 ells of dowlas. To William Arnall, 3 ells of dowlas. To Mary Browne, my god-child Ł 3 sterling, and "if the law do cutt off Mr. Cary his whole claims, as I know it will if it come to tryall," I give him Ł 50 sterling. On the 15th day of every October, there shall be a serman of mortality preached at my house, it being the day my daughter, Fortune Hunt, died, and whosoever shall enjoy my land, although it be a thousand generations hence, shall perform this serman and prayer, wherein if he faileth, the land shall fall to the informer. To five needy poor people a barrel of corn each. To the church a baptismal bason of silver worth Ł 3 sterling. Out of one-half of my personal estate, I give 600 lbs. tobacco to my cousin (nephew) Edward Bayly, and the remainder of this one-half shall be divided into seven parts, to be paid to Christopher Foster, Walter Flood, George Jordan, James Jordan, River Jordan, Elizabeth Jordan, and Thomas Flood. The other half of my personal estate and all my lands in Virginia to my nephew Thomas Jordan, and if he die before this will is proved, to my brother Arthur Jordan, in trust, to be equally divided among my seven nephews and niece Elizabeth Jordan. I have lived in this country 43 years.

Codicil. Since writing this will, I have given to my nephew Edward Bayly, a seat of land called the White Marsh, and therefore declare void the 600 lbs. tobacco. To Daniel Roviere, 500 lbs. tobacco. To Katherine Maddison 500 lbs. tobacco, towards the curing her leg, if she be not sent out of this parish by the vestry before the cure can be effected. To Thomas Andrews and Dorothy his wife, 500 lbs. tobacco.

BROTHERS AND SISTERS OF COL. GEORGE JORDAN

I. Fortune Jordan (1623? - 1669), sister of Col. George Jordan, married first ca, 1645, Col. John Flood, m. second ca. 1660 James Mills, by whom she had no children. (For Flood children see FLOOD)

II. Mary Jordan, another sister of Col. George, married ca. 1654, Arthur Bailey, m. 2nd., 1658 Christopher Foster. (For Bailey children see BAILEY).

Mary Jordan's second husband, Christopher Foster, on June 15, 1677, was administrator of the estate of John Emerson. On Jan. 15, 1677/8, Christopher Foster and George Jordan witnessed Walter Flood's discharge to John Cary for his estate. In 1678 his son, Christopher Foster, Jr. was given a legacy in the will of Col. George Jordan.

Christopher Foster Jr., married Elizabeth Barker, daughter of John Barker and Grace Cotton. John Barker, in his will probated 1714, bequeathed to grandson Robert Foster, "40 acres of land that lies between two branches joining the land his father Foster bought of Thomas Hunt." He also gives legacies to his granddaughter, Grace, and grandson, Christopher Foster, and orders his son, Josiah Barker, not to pay their estates until they came of age. (W.B.6,p.191).

Christopher Foster's will was dated March 27, 1710-11, and probated July 18, 1718. He mentions his four children John, Christopher, Faith, and Elizabeth Foster, then he says, "wherein the upper part of this will hath long been made and it hath pleased God to bless me with three more children, Grace, Robert, and Elizabeth Foster. They are to have equal part with my wife and children above named." Wife Elizabeth and her father, Mr. John Barker, were to be extrs. Witnesses: Thomas Andrews, Edward Bailey.

III. Arthur Jordan, (1629-1698) brother of Col. George Jordan, was born in 1629, according to a deposition made in Surry in 1659. (Bk. 1,p.143). He married in 1654, Elizabeth Bevin, daughter of Mary and Richard Bevin. On March 11, 1752, John Blackborne patented 100 acres next to Arthur Jordan for the transportation of himself and Mary Bevin. (C.P.244).

That the Jordan and Bevin families were neighbors is indicated by an agreement between William Norwood and Arthur Jordan, 9 Apr. 1663, to the effect "that Arthur Jordan's Spring, Swamp Run, is the dividing line; Arthur Jordan's land on south side by right from Richard Bevin and William Norwood's in right of John Blackborne." (Surry Book, I.214). Elizabeth evidently predeceased her husband, as she is not mentioned in his will.

In 1664-5, Arthur Jordan and Nathaniel Knight were appointed executors of the nuncupative will of John Hogson. In 1668, Arthur Jordan was assessed with 4 tithables in Southwark Parish, Surry.

The will of Arthur Jordan, dated September 24, 1698, probated January 3, 1698/9, was witnessed by Nathaniel Harrison, Walter Flood, and Thomas Flood. Arthur Jordan left legacies to his son George Jordan, his son Rivers Jordan, and "son and daughter Washington", granddaughter Elizabeth Jordan, and grandson, Arthur Washington.

Rivers Jordan, Jr., married Priscilla Browne (1680? - 1733) dau. of Colonel Browne (d. 1705) of "Four Mile Tree."

Rivers Jordan, Jr., died young. His will was probated Mar. 4, 1701. He bequeathed his estate to wife and unborn child, "but if child die to George Jordan son of George Jordan; to Arthur Jordan son of George; to Thomas Jordan son George; to Wm.

Browne, son of William Browne, Jr.; to Mary and Elizabeth Jordan daus. of George Jordan. Wife Priscilla, extrx." (Deeds 1694-1709, part 2, p.220). The unborn child was probably Mary Jordan, born 1700, mentioned in the will of her grandfather, Col. William Browne, 1704 as "my granddaughter, Mary Jordan, the younger". She is, however, not mentioned in the will of her mother Priscilla Thomas in 1719 and may have died young.

In reference to their connection with the Washington family of England, Mr. John Augustine Washington of Santa Barbara made a trip to London last year and brought back some interesting records from the Parish of St Martins in the Fields, now in the very heart of London.

Raipn Hall & Frances Washington 17 Jan. 1642/3.

Richard Washington was a younger brother of Sir John.

Arthur Jordan, son of George and Mary Jordan of Surry County, moved to Northampton County, North Carolina. He appears to have owned land in Brunswick County, Virginia. On August 27, 1751, he paid to Henry Lee 17 pounds current Virginia money for 150 acres north of Cypress Swamp, witnessed by George Jordan. He made his will in Northampton County on November 13, 1751, probated in May Court 1752: (1) son George to have the "land where he now lives"; (2) son Arthur (see later); (3) son John (4) son Thomas; (5) son Henry to have 150 acres; (6) son and executor Benjamin to have the home plantation; (7) daughter Elizabeth; (8) daughter Fortune; (9) wife and executrix Sarah.

It is said that Fortune Jordan married Samuel Jordan of Greensville County, Virginia. John Jordan and wife Mary sold 200 acres in Brunswick County, Virginia, to Samuel Bass of Sussex County on December 27, 1755. On November 26, 1756, John Jordan of Northampton County deeded to Samuel Bass of Brunswick County 110 acres patented by Arthur Jordan, plus 170 acres gained by a deed.

Arthur Jordan, son of Arthur and Sarah Jordan, patented 150 acres in Bertie County, North Carolina, on November 11, 1743. On August 26, 1745, he signed a deed to Edward Revis for 120 acres on Roanoke River, in return for 22/7/0 current Virginia money. On February 21, 1750, he witnessed the will of Edward Reavis. On October 3, 1750, he signed a deed to Edward Pennington, for 50 pounds current Virginia money, 300 acres north of Cypress Swamp, witnessed by Thomas Jordan. He made his will in Northampton County on September 14, 1754, probated in August Court, 1755. (1) son Samuel; (2) son Arthur; (3) daughter Rebecca; (4) daughter Mary; (5) daughter Sarah; (6) wife and executrix Sarah. (There was an Arthur Jordan living in Granville County, North Carolina, in 1790).

IV. William Jordan, another brother of Colonel George, had children living at Gisburn near Skipton in Craven, Yorkshire in 1677, according to the Colonel's will. In 1664, William Jordan about to die sold certain lands to Henry Briggs. His will was recorded in Surry, Mar. 20, 1664/5. He is said to have wife Ann and two daughters, James[2]Anderson, who married Mary Jordan, daughter of Mary (Browne) and George Jordan (1657-1718), describes himself in 1718 as "of Prince George County" when he sold to Joshua Meachem of Surry County, for a consideration of L. 4, 104 acres in Surry, near the Nottoway River, adjoining the land of Daniel Eppes. (Surry Book 1715-1730, p.127) On 14 February, 1719, James Anderson, then described as "of the County of Surry," sold to Cornelius Cargill of Prince George, for a consideration of L 10, 105 acres on Cattail Swamp in Prince George, adjoining land of Charles Anderson and unpatented lands. (Prince George Great Book, p.292). In the same year, he sold other tracts in Prince George. In 1749, James Anderson, then called "senior," of Surry County, deeded to John Anderson of Amelia, consideration 1 shilling, 200 acres on south side of Little Nottoway River, adjoining Samuel Jordan. (Signed) Rebecca Anderson. Witnesses: James Anderson Jr., Edward Eppes, Daniel Eppes. Recorded 16 Nov. 1750. (Amelia County Deed Book IV.39).

James Anderson was twice married: 1st, to Mary, daughter of George Jordan (see JORDAN); 2nd, to Rebecca, daughter of William Cook of Surry County. (See COOKE)

James Anderson's death in 1751 was reported by Thomas Bedingfield. (Albemarle Parish Register, p. 64).

In his will, 9 Jan. 1750/1 - 21 Jan. 1752, James Anderson, describing himself as "of Parish of Southwark, Surry County," gives to son Thomas a bequest of books, "Human Prudence" and "The Whole Duty of Man"; names son James; wife Rebecca; son John a tract of land lying in Amelia County adjacent to Thomas and Jordan Anderson's land, being the remainder of a tract granted said Thomas and Jordan Anderson containing 200 acres; I give to my daughter Mary Eppes (m. EDWARD EPPES) all the estate she hath now of mine in her possession and Ł5 current money of Virginia; daughter Lyddey Averiss; daughter Priscilla; daughter Faith; to son William all my land in Surry County. Residue of estate to wife Rebecca and son William (not 21); if my wife should marry, she is to have nothing to do with tract called Arnols. Wife, executrix. Witnesses: Lemuel Cocke, John Bishop, John Ray. (Surry Book, 1738-1754, p. 745). Appraisers: Benjamin Baird, Thomas Bedingfield, Richard Jones.

James Anderson's widow, Rebecca Anderson, lived nearly twenty years after her husband's death. Her will, 14 Oct. 1763 - 20 Mar. 1770, divides her wearing apparel amoung four sisters: Sarah Rachell (Mitchell), Mary Bonner (formerly wife of William Briggs), Susannah Hill, and Hannah Gary; she mentions a granddaughter Charlotte Anderson; son William executor. (Surry Book, 1768 - 1779, p. 77). As Rebecca Anderson mentions only the one child, William, in her will, it is presumed that all of the other children named in James Anderson's will were by his first marriage.

LANIER

Howell Pryce, Clerk and Sheriff of Charles City County, Virginia was probably the largest speculator in headrights in Virginia in the Seventeenth Century. The County Court Records show that he received certificates for 26,150 acres of land in that county in the years 1655-56-57 for transporting 523 persons to Virginia. (Fleet, Vol.10-Bk. 1655-58 see index). Among these headrights in April 1657 were John & Lucreece Lanier.

John and Lucrece Lanier were the ancestors of the widespread and noted Lanier family of Southside Virginia.

In June of 1665 in Charles City County an inquest was held to investigate the untimely death of Katherine Lanier, daughter of John and Lucreece Lanier, who was smothered in her crib "on a hot May day, the 7th".

Before the above fragmentary records of Charles City County were recently located, it had been stated without authority that John Lanier was born in 1655 in London. This guess was good for his fighting activities in Bacon's Rebellion, his marriage in about 1677 and his death in 1719. It also has been surmised that the John Lanier of Bacon's Rebellion was a son of John and Lucreece Lanier. If they came over in 1657 without any son John, who surely would have been listed as a headright if only a year old or younger, and then later had a baby young enough to smother in her crib, it is difficult to surmise that they would have had a son, John, mature enough to play a part in Bacon's Rebellion. It would therefore seem to be reasonable to conclude that the John Lanier of Bacon's Rebellion was the John Lanier of 1657 and 1665.

John Lanier had achieved a responsible position in his community in 1676, for in the month of April, 1676, the people of Charles City County, who with the people of Henrico had borne the brunt of the Indian raids, gathered together and sent as deputies to the Governor, John Lanier and John Woodlief, begging that he would permit them to take the field against the Indians at their own expense. Berkeley refused this and other petitions and forbade the people to make any further requests of the sort. Indignation ran high and 300 men gathered in Charles City County resolved to make a punitive expedition against the Indians without the Governor's consent. Bacon was acclaimed their leader and he with John Lanier and his army started out against the southern and western Indians. (Colonial Surry, p.113-114).

At the close of the Rebellion John Lanier married secondly, but the name of his wife is unknown. By her he had three sons: Robert, born 1678; John, born 1680; Sampson, born 1682. (Ages from depositions).

About 1685 in Charles City County, John Lanier married thirdly, Sarah Edmunds, the widow of William Edmunds. This is shown by a suit brought by her daughter Elizabeth Edmunds against John Lanier for withholding gifts which Sarah had promised her daughter "in her widowhood"; and also a land patent of William Edmunds, John and Sarah Lanier now being executors for said William Edmunds. Sarah was the mother of Sarah Lanier born about 1686 and Nicholas born about 1690. There is no record of her death. She was not living when John Lanier wrote his will 5 January 1717 - proved 4 April 1719 in Prince George County. His will names Robert first, and John second, to whom he leaves one shilling each. Thirdly to his son Sampson twelve shillings; Fourthly to his daughter Sarah Brewer one cow or heiffer of three years old. Fifthly I give to my grandson John Lanier, the son of Nicholas Lanier my son, feather bed, ruggs, chests, well fixed gunn, etc. Lastly I give my son Nicholas Lanier all the land I now live upon, all my land on the Otterdams, all my movables and immovables. My son Nicholas Lanier to be my sole Executor. Witnesses - William Peebles, Henry Peebles, Thos. Burrows. (D&W 1613-1728.p.304)

In 1683 John Lanier and Peter Wyche patented 1482 acres 3 rods 24 polls in Charles City County on the south side of the James River. In 1702 when Prince George County was formed that land was then in the new county and John Lanier was taxed for 700 acres. The northern part of his land was the head waters of Powell's Creek, and across the southern part runs the Otterdams; the land lies south west of the present Newville in Prince George County. This is what he willed to his son Nicholas. (P.B7-339)

I Robert Lanier, first son.

Robert Lanier, born 1678, married before October 9, 1713, Sarah Barker, daughter of John and Grace Barker of Surry County. She was named in her father's will of that date, and was living June 30, 1724 when her mother, Grace Barker, made her will. Apparently there was no issue. He married second, about 1728, Priscilla Washington, sister of Elizabeth, the wife of his brother Sampson Lanier, both daughters of Richard and Elizabeth (Jordan) Washington. Elizabeth Jordan was the daughter of Arthur Jordan and Elizabeth Bavin, (See Jordan).

Robert Lanier received a grant of land in 1713 in the Isle of Wight County of 225 acres. (G.B.10p.10). His will is dated 23 September 1753 and proved 18 May 1756, Surry County. He names wife Priscilla, sons John, Thomas and Robert, apparently all of age; and daughter Priscilla, not yet eighteen. To John Lanier he leaves the plantation in Surry on which he lives; to Thomas Lanier 100 acres in Brunswick on the north side of Three Creeks; to Robert Lanier 100 acres in Brunswick on the south side of Three Creeks; to Priscilla, slaves and money when she arrives at the age of eighteen or marries, and slaves to his wife, after her death to go to his sons. By December 14, 1764, Priscilla, his wife, was dead.

Children:

A John Lanier born about 1729, married after 1753, Priscilla (?Rivers?). She married second November 19, 1772, Samuel Russell of Cabin Point. (Virginia Gazette).

Their children were: 1 Robert, born about 1759, "who went abroad about 1781 and was never heard from again". (I,p.95), 2 John born about 1761, of Prince George Co. 1783, married January 7, 1789, Catherine Fallett. (P.G.Bond). They had Rebecca Dresony Lanier, born June 5, 1791, baptized November 2, 1792. 3 Lucy Lanier born about 1763, married March 27, 1788, Edward Newell of Prince George County. (P.G.Bond).

B Thomas Lanier, the second son of Robert and Priscilla Washington, was born about 1730/31 in Surry County; he married about 1761, Mary (possibly Collins, the daughter of William Collins). Thomas Lanier left very few records of his own making. In February 1761 he bought the land south of Three Creeks which his father had left to his brother Robert; on 2 December 1768, he voted in Brunswick in the election for Burgesses; in May 1773 he signed a petition on levies imposed on St Andrews Parish; in February 1765 Robert Mitchell deeds eight slaves to Thomas Lanier because of indebtedness. There are no records of Revolutionary services, no payment for supplies given at the time or any other kind of aid to the war. It is quite possible that he was a Quaker. If he did marry into the Collins family, they were Quakers, and moved to Campbell and Bedford counties. William Lanier, his oldest son, was a Quaker and was a member of the Blackwater Monthly Meeting of the south side of Virginia from which he transferred early in November of 1785, to the Rich Square M.M. in North Carolina, just south of Greensville County. He married almost immediately and was dismissed probably for marrying outside of the order.

When Greensville County was formed in 1782, Thomas Lanier's land which had been in Brunswick, was now in the northwest cornner of the new county. The Tax list of that year showed him to have thirteen whites and seven blacks. The Land Tax showed him to have 200 acres.

He died in February 1797 intestate, without leaving a record other than the above tax records. Mary Lanier, his wife, left a very partial will, dated 4 April 1798 (Bk 1, p 384) proved June 1798, in which she names five out of her eleven children; Edmund, Tabitha, Sally, Bird and Abner. A long and involved suit followed.

The children of Thomas and Mary Lanier.

1. William b. about 1761 m. Nov. 9, 1785, Rebecca Robinson in Greensville Co. He died early January 1815; she died July 1826. They had five sons and two daughters. Three sons and one daughter died young. All were unmarried except the other daughter.
2. Tabitha b. 1763, died Nov. 1839 in Greensville, unmarried.
3. Collins b. 1765, d. 1840-50 in Simpson Co. Ky. m. Dec. 26, 1792, Lucy, daughter of Jesse and Judith (Tatum) Berryman. They moved to Tennessee before 1800, and to Warren Co. Ky. before 1810. Had a large family.
4. Edmund Lanier b. 1767, d. Nov. 15, 1840 in Nashville, Tenn. m. first in Brunswick Co. Aug. 29, 1793 (Bond Aug. 17) Patsy Walton, daughter of George and Angelina Walton. He m. second in Greensville Co. Oct. 30, 1800, Amy Washington Goodrich. He was first a Methodist Minister, in 1820 became a Presbyterian Minister. He was in Warren Co. Ky. before 1810 and had moved to Nashville, Tenn. by 1820. Had three children by his first wife and several by the second.

5. Daughter b. about 1769, who married Miles Cooksey. She died before 1792/3, leaving a daughter Susannah.
6. Rebecca b. 1771, m. Jan. 13, 1792 Joel Thacker in Greensville. Three children.
7. Susanna b. 1773 m. Dec. 25, 1793 Miles Cooksey, as his second wife and had a daughter Elizabeth.
8. Sally b. 1775 m. Feb. 5, 1794 Edmund Lawrence in Greensville Co. Had an only daughter Mary Ann Lawrence who married in Williamson Co. Tenn. in 1820 and the Yeargins were living next door.
9. Bird b. Oct. 1777, died 1819 in Warren Co. Ky. m. Susan Cain, had three daughters.
10. Martha b. 1779, died unmarried in the spring of 1798. Court Order Book II p 558, Greensville Co. Va.
11. Abner b. 1781, died Feb. 1815 Greensville Co. m. first in Greensville Co. Dec. 8, 1808, Mary Grigg; m. second in Sussex Co. Dec. 6, 1810, Sally Chambliss. Children moved to Fayette Co. Tenn.

C Robert Lanier, the third son of Robert and Priscilla Lanier, was born about 1733. After his father's death he lived on his land in Brunswick County; he married there Sept. 8, 1759, Elizabeth Jackson, daughter of John Jackson. Henings Statutes, Vol. 7, p 212, lists him as being a Colonial Soldier in the Militia of Brunswick Co. and having furnished provisions and supplies. Robert and his wife left Brunswick in 1772 and went with a large group of people to North Carolina. He had a survey in Duplin County; he died before August 1779 as his widow Elizabeth was selling land on that date.

D Priscilla Lanier was born 1739; her brother John was her guardian. His final report was returned August 18, 1760. (Surry Orphans Accounts, 1754-62, p 259).

This concludes three generations of Robert^{2}Lanier.

II John Lanier, second son.

John Lanier, born about 1680, in Charles City County, married about 1705 Elizabeth Bird, daughter of Thomas and Mary Bird. Her grandfather was William Bird, one of the first Justices in Charles City County in 1663. He married Hannah (Grendon) Jennings. (See Col.Surry-92)

John Lanier died between 4 April 1720 and 4 March 1728; with the Court Order Books of Surry missing for that period we will probably never know any more about the children. The known children were; Bird Thomas, Lemuel of Surry, Robert and Benjamin. His widow Elizabeth Lanier had married Thomas Clare of Southwark Parish. In a deed of 1730 Thomas Clare and Elizabeth his wife deeded land to Robert Lanier son of said Elizabeth, and in default of any heirs of Robert Lanier to descend to his brother Benjamin Lanier. (D.B.8,Vol I, pt I, 1730-38, p28).

A Bird Thomas Lanier was born about 1706 on the headwaters of Upper Chipoaks Creek in Surry County. He married there about 1728, Mary; some descendants say her name was Madison. They were in Brunswick Co. before 1734; later his land was cut Benjamin (II) Harrison was born on 20 September 1645 at Southwark Parish, Wakefield (Surry County) Virginia, the son of Benjamin (I) Harrison, and died on 30 January 1712 in Cabin Point (Surry County) Virginia. He married Hannah (Unknown) about 1672 in Cabin Point (Surry County) Virginia (she is listed as Hannah Churchill; in "Colonial Families of the Southern States" by Stella Hardy 1974; however, tradition says she was a Harrison, possibly a daughter of General Thomas Harrison, "The Regicide"). We are talking about the same LEE line. Hugh Lee (I) "The Immigrant" was married to Hannah Huett (Hewett) who was the widow of Robert Huitt (many spellings found for Hewitt). Hugh (I) was born in 1609 (Baptismal Record 10-15-1609) in Cheshire, England. He married Hannah about 1648-50. Hugh (I) had died by 1661 when Hannah had taken over Hugh's shipping business and had remarried. It was thought that Hugh (I) was the father of Hugh Lee, Sr. (II), who was married to Ann Harrison (possibly Barnett), but that still has yet to be proven so we aren't sure if Hugh (I) is related to us. Our first record of Hugh Lee (I) in America is in 1645 in Kent Island and St.Mary's Co. In 1648, Hugh Lee and John Pites witnessed the will of George Higgins. The case you mention of John Barnes having given Charles Ashton's maide the pox is found in Beverly Fleet's VIRGINIA COLONIAL ABSTRACTS, VOL. I, NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY RECORDS, 1652-1655 and that record also states that Hugh and Hannah Lee both gave their depositions in the case on 20 May 1653. Hugh Lee, Jr. (III) (born ca 1670; died 1739 in Prince George Co., VA), was also married to an Ann (Tatum). Ann Tatum was the daughter of Samuel and Mary Tatum. Hugh (III) came to Charles City Co., VA about 1673 with his parents, Hugh Lee, Sr. (II), and Ann Harrison Lee. Counting Hugh Lee (I) there were four Hugh Lees in succession in our LEE line. Hugh (III) also had a son named Hugh.

If I can help with anything on our LEE line, contact me at mackl@flash.net and I'll be happy to go into more detail if you need it.

He was married to Rebecca ? his son Peter Lee married Elizabeth Lunday and is believe to be the father of Peter Lee b Sampson Co NC who is the documented grandson of William Lee. Peter's son was Cato Lee who married Nancy Holland. Do you think William is related to your Lee of Brunswick Co?

Debi,
Your William Lee (Sr.) (b. 1691-6, Prince George Co., VA, d. May, 1761, Brunswick Co., VA. Will was proved in court, May 26, 1761) was married to REBECCA BURCHETT (b. 1698, Bristol Parish, Prince George Co., VA). William Lee, Sr., had no brothers, nephews or sons named David. He did have a grandson named David but he was born in 1746 (son of William Lee, Jr.) and a great-grandson named David that was born in 1755 (son of Peter Lee, Jr., who was married to Mary Cato. Of course, Peter, Jr., and Mary had a son named Peter that was named Peter, Jr., who also had a son named Peter. Yes, it gets a little confusing.).

Betty, Peter Lee who married Elizabeth Lundy was born about 1714/15 and had died by March of 1738. Apparently died very young and the reason we only find one child for them, Peter, Jr. We show that William, Jr., who married Ann Westbrook was born about 1715 and did die about 1794/7. Besides Peter and William ,Jr., William Lee, Sr., and Rebecca Burchett also had five other children. They were James (b. 1717), Amy (b. 1719), Elizabeth (b. 1720), Ann (b. 1722), and Rebecca (b. 1724). We have a little more information on these five children. Contact me if you would like to compare notes.

Hugh LEE Sr. was born about 1609 in Tilston, England. He died on 1 Apr 1662 in Northumberland County Virginia. He married Hannah HUETT.

Hugh's and Hannah's birthdays are deduced from affidavits they signed in Northumberland County on May 20, 1653 when they swore they were aged 44 and 37.

Joe Lee of Houston, Texas has found the birth record of Hugh I in Tilston, England in 1609. This date is verified in court records in Virginia. This is near Conaway on the north coast of Wales. This name was shortened from Aberconaway--the name Hugh II gave to his home in Prince George county. This makes a fairly good link between Hugh I and Hugh II.

Northumberland County Court, Virginia records:
100 acres on December 21, 1650 for importing himself and Rose Stockwell from Maryland (granted 50 acres per person under the headright program).
On January 20, 1652 his petition for a free school to be set up was granted.
On April 13, 1652 Hugh signed an oath to the Commonwealth of England (Cromwell) [Book 1, 72-3].
In 1654, he patented another 288 acres for importing another six persons; but he deserted this land and lost it.
On August 20, 1655 Hugh served as a County Commissioner.
Begining May 25, 1656 Hugh served as a Justice beginning May 26, 1656 [Book 14, 84].
He settled in Northumberland County prior to May 13, 1657 for importing 22 persons, including the widow Hannah Hewitt. [His wife]
In 1660 Hugh patented 400 acres in 1660 before his death before September 8, 1662 [book 2, 161].
He acted as agent for many men, including the collection of debts.

Another wife's name is: Ann Harrison Barnett, born: 1662.
Surname could also be BARRETT, Barnet, or Busse (Tidewater Families of VA) or HARRISON (Era Stinson of Bowling Green); both per Mary Norman.
Note: Different sources have differnt wives for Hugh Sr. Both wifes are listed as the mother of Hugh Lee Jr.. Ann is listed for all the rest of Hugh's children, not Hannah Huett.

Hugh's and Hannah's birthdays are deduced from affidavits they signed in Northumberland County on May 20, 1653 when they swore they were aged 44 and 37.

Ann HARRISON was born about 1640. She married Hugh LEE Jr. about 1662 in Prince George County, Virginia.

Another wife's name is: Ann Harrison Barnett, born: 1662.

(Era Stinson of Bowling Green); both per Mary Norman.
Note: Different sources have different wives for Hugh Sr.. Both wives are listed as the mother of Hugh Lee Jr.. Ann is listed for all the rest of Hugh's children, not Hannah Huett.

Descendants of Hugh Lee I

Generation No. 1

1. HUGH[1] LEE I was born 1609 in Tilston, England, and died April 01, 1662 in Northumberland C Virginia. He married HANNAH HUETT in Maryland? She was born 1616 in St. Mary's County, M died 1667 in Virginia.

Notes for HUGH LEE I:
Hugh was apparently granted land four times in Northumberland County. First, he was granted 100 acres on December 21, 1650 for importing himself and Rose Stockwell from Maryland (granted 50 acres per person under the headright program). Then, in 1654, he patented another 288 acres for importing another six persons; but he deserted this land and lost it. He finally settled in Northumberland County prior to May 13, 1657 for importing 22 persons, including the widow Hannah Hewitt whom he married. Hugh patented 400 acres in 1660 before his death before September 8, 1662 [book 2, 161].

Hugh's and Hannah's birthdays are deduced from affidavits they signed in Northumberland County on May 20, 1653 when they swore they were aged 44 and 37.

Hugh's name is mentioned frequently in the Northumberland Court records. On April 13, 1652 he s to the Commonwealth of England (Cromwell) [Book 1, 72-3]. On January 20, 1652 his petition for be set up was granted. He served as a County Commissioner beginning August 20, 1655 and as a Ju May 26, 1656 [Book 14, 84]. He acted as agent for many men, including the collection of debts.

According to Benjamin Weisiger in 1983:

The data on this chart was obtained from the records of Prince George County, Charles City Co, and Henrico Co, Va. as well as the Va. Land Patents, Va. Tax Lists for Prince George Co., The Bristol Parish Vestry Book and Register, and data obtained in the late 19th Century by Miss Catherine Lee (born 1857) from her aunt, Susan B. Lee Gooch and her grandmother Sarah Clements Lee. Other data from the Bible of Lodowick Lee and Alfred Stith Lee. It has not been possible to relate this branch of the Lee Family to Hugh Lee (1609-1661) of Northumberland County, Va. and St. Mary's Co., Md. A Hugh Lee was also in Isle of Wight co. in the 1640's, and a Hugh Lee was British Consul in Lisbon in 1611. The name of Hugh Lee occurs frequently among the Lees of Shropshire, especially the Parish of Hughley, whose records were destroyed in the 1650's. Relationship of this Lee family to those of York County and the Stratford Lees is unknown.

From Earl: Northelm@AOL.com
Sandy, thank you so much for the informative email. Joe Lee of Houston, Tx. has done extensive research on this family, and has made several trips to England. He has found the birth record of Hugh I in Tilston, England in 1609. This date is verified in court records in Virginia. This is near Conaway on the north coast of Wales. This name was shortened from Aberconaway--the name Hugh II gave to his home in Prince George county. This makes a fairly good link between Hugh I and Hugh II.

Notes for Hugh Lee:
"There were four Hugh Lee's in a row. The first married Hannah, then Ann Harrison, then Ann Tatum and finally, Mary." Thanks to Earl Betts. Our first record of Hugh Lee (I) in America is in 1645 in Kent Island and [later] St. Mary's Co. Thanks to Mack Lee.

"He arrived Jamestown in 1643 from Shropshire England, and moved at once to Northumberland Co. Va., later to St. Mary's, Md. He had one son, Hugh II, called, confusingly, Hugh Sr. in some writings. Hugh Lee died on or about 1658. " He was in Norfolk County, VA, December 20, 1645

From Northampton Co., VA records, Robert Pitt of Isle of Wight Co., merchant, gave a power of attorney to "my sone John Pitt" to receive 2800 lb. tobo. from Hugh Lee. Dated 29 May 1650; recorded 25 Oct 1652. Similarly, John Pitt appointed "my loving friend William Thomas" attorney to receive 2800 lb. tobo. from Hugh Lee. Dated 4 Mar 1651/52; recorded 25 Oct 1652.

"As the Governor's residence, it was certain to be maintained and without expense to her. In the end, she was able to help the rightful owner retrieve it. The upshot for Stone was less desirable. His widow, Verlinda, lost The Governor's Field and its house, which he had willed to her. Leonard Calvert's heir, William, obtained it; but this outcome was probably sweetened by his marriage to Stone's daughter Elizabeth.
"William Calvert promptly sold the house and land to an innkeeper, Hugh Lee, who apparently had already been operating an ordinary there. Soon afterwards Lee died and in 1662, his widow sold the property to the Province. The house became a combined ordinary and capitol building for meetings of the courts and assembly, and around it began the development of St. Mary's City."

Nathaniel Tatum [1]

- Baptized: 18 Nov 1599
- Marriage: Ann Tatum Bef Jul 1638, England

General Notes:

Nathaniel Tatum was a very lucky man. and a member of a very select group. According to records, 7, 289 people migrated to Virginia between 1609 and 1624. 6,040 of those died. On 23 January 1624, Nathaniel was included in the muster of Shirley Hundred, Charles Citte. He reported that at age twenty years he had come to Virginia on the ship "George" in May 1619.

The "George" left London in March of 1619. It was a 150 ton sailing vessel with William Ewen as the master. After a two month passage the vessel arrived Jamestown, Virginia in May 1619.

He returned to England to marry a woman named Ann.

Migrations:
Nathaniel Tatum

After two months at sea they were immured to the tang of salt on the air. It must have been exciting to smell land again. They would have hung on the rails waiting for their first glimpse of their new home. William Ewen , the captain of the "George," a 150 ton sailing vessel, would have watched for any danger that could prevent them a safe harbor.

It was May of 1619 and the ancestor of the majority of the Tatum's in this country had arrived in Jamestown, Virginia. He was among a very select group of people. According to the records, 7,289 people migrated to Virginia between 1609 and 1624. 6,040 of those died of disease, starvation or succumbed to infections acquired onboard the ships in passage. Until the 1660's only 20% of the arrivals in a given year survived.

Although we don't know about Nathaniel Tatum, the majority of the immigrants were indentured servants. They were free persons, but poor, who voluntarily contracted their services for a period of time in return for passage, food, and clothing with the promise of tools and seed at the end of the indenture.

On 16 February, 1623, Nathaniel was living at West and Shirley Hundred. On 23 January 1624 he was included in the muster of Shirley Hundred, Charles Cittie. He reported that he was aged twenty years, and had come to Virginia on the "George" in May 1619, which would have made him 15 when he arrived in the New World.

Charles City was one of the four great corporations set up by the Virginia Company of London in 1618. It retained its original area when it became one of the eight shires (counties) into which Virginia was divided in 1634. Charles City County extended on both sides of the James River from James City County on the east, to Henrico County on the west. Its eastern boundary was the Chickahominy River.

The pioneer settlements in Charles City County were actually plantation parishes, some of which were the earliest in Virginia history. The first of these, Charles City, was established about 1612 as a place of "retreat against any forraigne enemy", on the south bank of both the Appomatox and James Rivers, several miles above its mouth.

About the same period of time, the early plantation of West and Shirley Hundred, on the north side of the James River, about twenty-five miles above Jameston, was founded by Governor Thomas Dale as a part of his New Bermudas, centered about the parent settlement of Bermuda Hundred. West and Shirley Hundred, of which Westover plantation was the nucleus, became Westover Parish. The parish extended to Charles Cittie, south of the James; by 1643, this part of the parish became Bristol Parish.

Nathaniel evidently had moved from the north side of the James to the south by 1624, and was living on the south side at Charles Citty. Nathaniel later patented land on the south side of the Appomatox River. Before May 1638, he had already established himself at the falls on the south side of the river.

It is believed that Nathaniel returned to England and was married because on 25 July 1638 he patented 100 acres on the Appomatox, "south into the woods, north upon the river and east upon a creek parting the land from his own 500 acres, and west upon the river and the land of John Baker" Nathaniel claimed right to this land for transporting his wife, Ann Tatum and daughter, Mary Tatum. The 500 acres had been assigned to him the day before, by Thomas Causey, and lay next to the land of Causey. A listing of the Tatum land records in Prince George and Charles City Counties are available on this site.

Nathaniel and Ann Tatum had at least three children:

1. Mary Tatum
2. Nathaniel Tatum II
3. Samuel Tatum

Will of Edward Tatum

(A THANK YOU to Sara Hill for providing this will)
Jefferson County, AL, Book 1832-37, p. 201:

In the name of God, Amen, I Edward Tatum, of the County of Jefferson and State of Alabama, being in reasonable health of body and of perfect mind, thanks be given unto God for it, and calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die; do make and ordain this, my last will and testament, that is to say, principally and first of all I freely give and recommend my soul into the hand of the Almighty God, that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth, to be buried in a decent Christian burial at the discretion of my executor and executrix, believing at the general Resurrection I shall receive the same by the mighty power of God. And as to touching such wordly estate wherewith it has been pleased God to bless me within this life, I give, demise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form:

My whole estate to be sold to the highest bidder on a credit of twelve months, the purchaser or purchasers to give bonds with sufficient security for the true payment of the money to my executor and executrix, and after paying all of my just debts and William Tatum's heirs five hundred dollars, because he deceased before he got his part of my estate as the rest of my children did, then the whole to be divided into nine equal moyites: (Viz: John Tatum, Jesse Tatum's heirs, William Tatum's heirs, Elizabeth Hanby, Sarah Martin, Martha Tatum, Nancy Wofford, Susan Baird and Jane Baird).

But if it should be the case that I should have a crop begun, my desire is for the crop to be gathered and finished before any sale. I also do constitute and appoint my grandson, David Hanby, of the County and State aforesaid, my lawful executor and my daughter, Martha Tatum, of said County and State, my lawful executrix of this my last will and testament, dis-annulling all other wills and bequeaths prior to this, my last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this the fifteenth day of December in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-One and of the Independence of America the Fifty-sixth year. Interlined before signed with (the) second place (security).

Notes for Capt. Nathaniel Tatum:
He "may be" the son of William Tatum and Ellen Kerk. See final note about "Bridewell Boys"
The following web sites identify two possible ancestries for Nathaniel of Jamestown and Sherley Hundred. I lean towards the Barbados connection with Wainwright.
http://www.rootsquest.com/~ranlewis/Nathaniel_Tatum.html
http://www.rootsquest.com/~ranlewis/NathAlt.html

"This is most likely the same Nathaniel Tatom, Elder who deeded a parcel of land to his grandson, Nathaniel Tatom, of Henrico County, Virginia (next to Charles City County) on 27 January 1675; this information not only appeareed in the colonial Virginia records but also is listed in "Genealogical Notes form Bermuda". Nathaniel Tatom, the grandson, was probably the son of John Tatom who had recently died (1673). Nathaniel Tatom who was growing old wanted to dispose of some of his property in Virginia. Captain Nathaniel Tatom, chirurgeon, died between 14 November 1686 and the date his will was proved, 26 October 1687. He made out his will on 14 November 1686; and he named Mary Tatom, his wife, exicutrix, and his cousin, Benjamin Wainwright, executor. Benjamin Wainwright was probably the nephew of Ann Wainwright Tatom. Because Captain Nathaniel Tatom owned at least one ship, he was most likely traveling a great deal between Virginia and Bermuda; and this explains his appearance in records in both Virginia and Bermuda. He was also trading with the Bahama Islands. Perhaps he had already made a property settlement with his children and grandchildren in Virginia; and this explains why Captain Nathaniel Tatom, mariner and chirurgeon, named only his three children and his second wife in Bermuda in his will of 1686.

One "Nathaniel Tatum left London on the "George" in March of 1619. The "George" was a 150 ton sailing vessel with William Ewen as the master. After a two month passage the vessel arrived in Jamestown, Virginia, in May of 1619. ... Nathaniel Tatum was baptized on November 18, 1599 at Holy Trinity the Less, London, the son of William Tatum and his wife, Ellen Kerk. William Tatum and Ellen Kerk were married on 3 August 1589 at St. Benet Grace Church, London.

Regardless of his ancestry, the following relates to this Nathaniel:
"Nathaniel was among a very select group of people. According to the records 7,289 people migrated to Virginia between 1609 and 1624. 6,040 of those died of disease, starvation or succumbed to infections acquired onboard the ships in passage. Until the 1660's only 20% of the arrivals in a given year survived. Although we don't know about Nathaniel, the majority of the immigrants were indentured servants. They were free persons, but poor, who voluntarily contracted their services for a period of time in return for passage, food, and clothing with the promise of tools and seed at the end of the indenture.

"Nathaniel was living at West and Shirley Hundred on 16 February 1623 and was included in the muster of Shirley Hundred, Charles Cittie, on 23 January 1624. He reported that he was aged twenty years, and had come to Virginia in the "George" in May 1619. Nathaniel evidently had moved from the north side of the James to the south by 1624, and was living on the south side at Charles Citty. Nathaniel later patented land on the south side of the Appomatox River. Before May 1638, he had already established himself at the falls on the south side of the river. It is believed that Nathaniel returned to England and was married because on 25 July 1638 he patented 100 acres on the Appomatox, "south into the woods, north upon the river and east upon a creek parting the land from his own 500 acres, and west upon the river and the land of John Baker" Nathaniel claimed right to this land for transporting his wife, Ann Tatum and daughter, Mary Tatum. The 500 acres had been assigned to him the day before, by Thomas Causey, and lay next to the land of Causey. Nathaniel Tatum lived to be quite an old man, especially considering the period of time and location he lived. He was still alive in January of 1675 and was at least 75 years old.It is not known when Nathaniel or Ann Tatum died. Ann died before 26 April 1684 because a land patent of that date, for 150 acres in Isle of Wight County to Mr. Thomas Pitt, described the land as that which "Ann Tatum died seized of".

If he is part of the London family (including, even if his family then moved to Barbados):
"There were groups of children, all waifs, who had been cast upon the streets of London to survive. The alternative would have been the work house, and the children had beocme adept at avoiding capture and being sent there. They used whatever means they had needed to survive and stay warm.

"Bridewell Hospital in London received a number of these children, at one time there were "seventy-five boys and twenty-five wenches who were restrained there and slated for passage to Virginia". They were all children, ages eight to sixteen, who had been found running wild in the streets of London and committed to Bridewell which served as a house of corrections. [One] Nathaniel Tatum's name was on that list."

Notes for Ann [Unknown]:
May be Ann Underwood.

Children of Nathaniel Tatum and Ann [Unknown] are:

i. Mary Tatum, born Bet. 1636 - 1638 in Prob. Barbados.
ii. Nathaniel Tatum II, born Bet. 1637 - 1640 in of Charles City Co., VA; died Bef. 10 Nov 1719 in Prince George Co., VA; married Elizabeth Turner.

Notes for Nathaniel Tatum II:
Nathaniel Tatum was the son of Nathaniel and Ann Tatum. He grew up in Charles City County in that area that became Prince George County and probably continued to live there. He did not patent any additional land until 1716, when he acquired 321 acres adjacent to his nephew, Nathaniel Jr., on the southside of Joseph's Swamp in Prince George County. He was credited with 500 acres of land in 1704. It is not known whom Nathaniel married, but he had sons, named in his will: Henry, Christopher, Peter, and Edward Tatum. He made his will on August 24, 1714 and it was presented in Prince George County court, on November 10, 1719. He did not mention his wife, so it is probable that she had died earlier.

He was paid for killing a wolf on 27 Oct 1656
His will, dated 24 Aug 1714, recorded 10 Nov 1719; EX: sons EDWARD and CHRISTOPHER, W: THOMAS (X) HARRELL, THOMAS HOOD, HENRY TATUM, and STITH BOLLING

Notes for Samuel Tatum:
SAMUEL TATUM continued, for his life-time, to live in the same general area in which he grew up. The first patent of land recorded to SAMUEL TATUM was issued for 803 acres in Charles City County on October 30, 1686. The patent was issued to "Mr. SAMUEL TATUM", a term used in the colonial period to denote only the upper classes of society. The land was due SAMUEL for transporting seventeen persons to the Colonies.

803 acres in Charles City County at a place known as Warrockhock beg. at JOHN SMITH, to HENRY BATT, crossing the second Sw., to land of HUGH LEE dated 30 Oct 1686. Trans of 17 pers: not listed.

In October 1690, RICHARD LIGON, SAMUEL TATUM, and WILLIAM TEMPLE were granted a tract of land containing 1,022 acres in Bristol Parish lying on the south side of the Appomatox River at Warrock Swamp, adjoining the land of John Ledbetter & John Scott. "The Governor refused to sign the above patent for that part of it laid on the south side of the main Blackwater Swamp." The patent was never issued.

Samuel Tatum had settled on the outer reaches of the colony, and it was easy for him to make servants of some young Indians. The plantation produced tobacco, as well as cotton and corn. Samuel had a self-sufficient operation with upwards of eighteen head of cattle, seventeen hogs, and ten sheep. He also owned three mares, a horse, and a colt. He had built his own house, his tobacco sheds and a house for his Indian servants. For much of the adult life of Samuel Tatum, the records of the county courts have not survived.
Samuel and his brother, Nathaniel, were each awarded the bounty for killing a wolf in 1693, 300 pounds of tobacco. Samuel on 3 Aug 1688 took Robert Malone, an orphan, to raise, and promised to see that he had all of the usual allowances at the end of his apprenticeship. He also promised to use his utmost endeavor to cure his head.
There is no evidence that Samuel Tatum was actively involved in the affairs of the county. He seems to have spent his time involved in managing his plantation. Samuel did make one welcome contribution to the community's social gatherings. He played the violin, or fiddle, depending upon who his audience might be. Whenever the neighbors gathered for a fish fry or family picnic, he played. Folks looked forward to having his music to dance to. Everyone enjoyed dancing, and it was seldom that there was music as an accompaniment. Every year at the fair, he played for the dance contests, and he enjoyed it as much as the couples dancing.
When the inventory of Samuel's estate was returned, it was valued at £137.18sh.10. The estate expenses amounted to a little over £30. His will dated 6 Sep 1715, AD: son NATHANIEL, AP: JOHN (X)
LIEKE (GOLIGHTLY?), HENRY (H) CHAMBLISS, and HUGH (H) LIKELE (GOLIGHTLY?) [Lee]

Records (thanks to Forrest King) indicate:

Notes for Mary Moore:
He will dated 14 Dec 1715, recorded 10 Jan 1716; EX: son NATHANIEL, W: CHRISTOPHER TATUM and RICHARD CARLISLE

Mary Tatum's personal estate included one-third of Samuel's personal estate plus "two pair of spectacles and case, two hand baskets, one doe shik, one bushel and a half of wheat, one silk handkerchief, one pair of tobacco tongs, one thimble, one pair of scissors, two petticoats, one gown, one frock, one waistcoat, one cloak, one shift, three blue aprons, two hoods, one cap, and one pair hose." By today's standards this was hardly enough to keep body and soul together. By the standards of the time, she had all that she needed.
